

LAKSHMIBAI COLLEGE (UNIVERSITY OF DELHI)

Announces

Online Creative Writing Contest

Lakshmibai College is proud to announce its first open creative writing contest to commemorate

National Youth Day.

The contest is open to Indian youth who have a penchant for writing. Select contributions will be published in an Anthology. A book which carries the original work of the children/young-writers.

We are open to all styles and genres. You can write a poem, a story, a travelogue, a short comic piece, pictorial representation with a storyline, haikus, an essay or anything within the specified word count on the suggested themes.

Contest Deadline :- 12th January 2020

For submission guidelines and NEFT details log on to announcements section of college website.

Suggested themes:

- Health (Physical & Mental)
- Values & Ethics
- Tradition & Modernity
- East & West
- Plant and Animal World
- Environment
- Innovation & Entrepreneurship
- Adventure, Arts and Aesthetics
- Money, Power & Desire
- Natural Phenomenon and Mythological Characters
- Culture & Multi-culturalism
- National Integration
- Conflict Resolution and Building Peace
- Man, Nature and Energy
- Science and Spirituality

Eligibility Criteria:

Age as on 31st December 2019 : Group 1 (14-18 years) Group 2 (19-25 Years).

Entry Fee Rs 100/- per entry . Payment by NEFT only.

Submission of multiple entries is allowed.

Word Count: 300-1500 words

It should be an original piece of writing.

The entries must be in English or Hindi.

The entries must be typed and submitted online (MS word file) on the registration page of the contest and at the following email address along with NEFT receipt :-

(writingcontest@lb.du.ac.in)

Target audience: Age group to be mentioned by the writer

Prizes

First Prize Rs 5000

Second Prize Rs 3000

Third Prize Rs 2000

Appreciation Award Rs 1000

Honorable Mentions Citation

Decision of the Jury will be final.