The Department of English

B.A(Program)

(Admissions 2020-2021)

Choice Based Credit System

- CBCS is Choice Based Credit System that provides a vast array of interdisciplinary, and skill based courses from which students can choose their paper options depending on their interest and aptitude/aims.
- The University offers a Learning Outcome-based Curriculum Framework (LOCF) for all its under graduate courses, in order to provide well defined learning outcomes, making the teaching-learning process dynamic and goal oriented. It aims to develop critical and analytical skills in the students, enabling them to realise their potential.
- CGPA or Cumulative Grade Point Average is adopted to introduce a uniform grading system which would benefit the students in moving across institutions nationally and internationally.

Get to Know Your Course: B.A. (Prog.)English Discipline

The curriculum of B.A.(Prog.) English Discipline though not as rigorous as B.A.(Hons.) English syllabus, attempts to familiarise the students with key literary texts of world literature, important literary events and movements, a basic understanding of literary theory and to approach literature in a multidisciplinary manner.

Besides this, students of B.A./B.com(Program) study a Compulsory Core English Language paper . This paper's objective is to hone the writing, reading and speaking skills of the students. The course is divided in three streams, based on class XII marks of students.

- English Language through Literature: 80% and above
- English Fluency: 60% and above upto 80%
- English Proficiency: less than 60%

CBCS Structure: B.A. (Prog)
