COLLEGE, UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

ABOUT US

“Wings of Change”! Over the last one decade, the Indian society has witnessed a paradigm shift as far as the preference of career options and opportunities for women are concerned. The sole intent is to empower the students to face the professional world with befitting adroitness in every possible way. As the name, “WINGS” connotes the soaring aspirations of the students, their indomitable spirits to reach sky and beyond.

As a part of campus engagements, several of our students have been selected by reputed organizations such as Genpact, Tata Power Delhi Distribution Limited, Adroit Financial Services Pvt. Ltd., Binary Semantics (for permanent deputation to Google India), Yes Bank, Fork and Spoon, Go Ads, and Laurent and Benon. Further, companies such as American Express, EXL–Operations

Management and Analytics, Smartprix, Aditya Birla Financial Services, Human First Consulting Pvt. Ltd., Urban Clap, RFCL, Indian Express, HDFC Bank, Times Internet, Zomato, eWards, Inkpot, and ML Books International have also expressed an interest to hire our students. Next, with regard to placements through the Central Placement Cell (University of Delhi), Wipro, Infosys, TechGinee, Fidelity National Information Services for the process of Google AdWords, FRR Forex Pvt. Ltd., Amazon India, IndiGo, British Telecom Global Business Services, Heritage Schools, Tech Mahindra, Mera Job India, Shaadi. Com have shortlisted/selected our students.

The placement cell is also associated with various internship portals such as Internshala, Interntheory and Sociowash. Furthermore, DU Student Interns Scheme 2017 (University of Delhi), Orange Octopus, Eat My News, TopYaps, OYO Rooms, The Testament, Weekendr (The Skill School), Dadpreneur, Connect2India, Nearbuy, Cream Feeds, Career 360, The Financial Doctors,

IMPROVING EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS FOR A BETTER FUTURE

SEMINAR

A one day seminar on Improving Employability Skills for a better Future was organised by the placement cell on 24th January 2019. Purpose of the seminar was to engage the students in the discussion related to various career opportunities and the skills necessary for a job.

Very soon the students will embark on a new yet unknown trajectory where they might find themselves baffled with questions regarding career options and opportunities. In today's competitive and globalised world, merely procuring knowledge is not enough; one needs a special set of skills to sail through the challenging demands of time. Therefore, it is necessary to evaluate one's strength and weakness both to achieve the goal in professional life. This seminar is a humble endeavour at providing a glimpse into all these areas and to stipulate a platform for the students where they get to observe, learn and participate in various junctures of Job opportunities –namely, Civil Services and Competitive Exams; Teaching and Research; Entrepreneurship/ Corporate Management; Journalism and Media.

PURPOSE OF THE SEMINAR:

1. To develop an attitude of skill-building amongst students To create awareness about the ever-changing Job opportunities in India and abroad.

2. To make them acquaint with “ peer-counselling” as an effective strategy for steppingd in the professional world.

3. To build confidence and prepare them for various challenges like “stressmanagement, team-building and leadership goals in professional capacity. Above all, the seminar aims at stimulating the young minds, and to quote Swami Vivekananda

“Fear is a cage where you are locked up and Faith is the key to freedom.”

The seminar was broadly classified into four categories:

1. Civil services and other competitive exams

Speaker: Dr. Arvind Singh

Dr. Arvind is affiliated with AFHQ, Civil Services, and at present is Director in Defence Headquarters Training Institute, Ministry of Defence. He holds twenty years of experience in training and administration in civil services. He has conducted training programmes in organizations like Civil Aviation, NIFM, HCL, Power Grid, Indian Army, Indian Air Force, and D.U Teachers' CPDHE. His area of expertise includes Team Building, Leadership, Emotional Intelligence; Values based Management, Personal Effectiveness, Public Speaking, Stress Management, Presentation Skill, Creative Problem Solving, Self-renewal, Personality and Effective Projection etc.

2. Teaching, training and research

Speaker: Dr. Amrita Shilpi

Dr Shilpi is affiliated with Lakshmibai College, where she works as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Political Science. She has more than seven years of teaching experience to her credit. Having done her higher studies from institutions like B.H.U and J.N.U, she went on to procure several fellowships and publications. Her fellowships include UGC Junior Research Fellowship and Doctoral Fellowship from International Food Policy Research Institute, Washington. She is currently working as a Co-project Director in ICSSR funded Research Program on "Evolution and Implication of article 370," along with various other research projects. She has been actively engaged with the electronic media like television and radio and worked as a voice over artist in BBC World Service Trust, BBC Media Action India Limited, All India Radio and even as a television anchor for Doordarshan.

3. Entrepreneurship Skills

a. How To Become An Entrepreneur?

Speaker: Dr. S. Lakshmi Devi

Dr. Devi has been a former alumni of Miranda House College wherefrom she had obtained a Master's degree in Botany and the founder Principal of Shaheed Rajguru College of Applied Science, University of Delhi. She is an educationist and has worked ceaselessly for the upliftment of women. In her time she had established EDP cells in colleges and conduct Entrepreneurship programs and has remained the Honorary Director at the Centre for Entrepreneurship and Career Oriented Programs at the University of Delhi. She is further associated with organizations as such Women's Education World Wide and Women in Public Service Project. She has a number of publications in the relevant area as well to her credit.

b. How To Become A Corporate Manager?

Speaker: Ms. Monica Gupta

Dr. Gupta has completed a degree of Instrumentation in Applied Sciences and a management degree from Jagan Institute of Management Studies. She had started her career with pharmaceutical company with the profile of a sales and marketing professional. She had worked with organisations like Microsoft and Canon in the year 2000. Later she had worked with Wipro, Honda, India TV and had led the digital division of an advertising agency before finally moving on to Entrepreneurship with ten years of experience. At present, she is the Director of her Entrepreneurial Brain-child "Interactive Bees" working with managerial acumen and experienced insight.

4. Journalism and Media

Speaker: Dr. Manish Kumar

Having procuring his education from institutions like Sainik School Tilaiya, Hazaribagh and Doctorate degree in International Politics from JNU , he went on to become the Editor and co-ordinator for Chauthi Duniya, an e-paper. He had been a part of Chauthi Duniya from 2008 till the present time. PEER COUNSELLING

Main purpose of the seminar organized by the placement cell is to make students acquaint with "peer- counselling" as an effective strategy for stepping on the professional world. Peer counselors use a set of unique tools to help others reach their goals. Counselors practice active listening by giving their complete attention to what someone is saying, and they respond without judgement.

Facilitative questioning is used to help peers talk about feelings, explore issues and find solutions.

Students interested for this counselling have to give a minimum of eight hour training to atleast 2 peer. The best counselor will get the “Institutional Social Responsibility Ambassador” certificate.
