The year commenced with “M. Com Pre-entrance Coaching Classes” organized in college premises from 09th June to 18th June 2018. These classes were open to all Lakshmi Bai College students and girls from Economically Weaker Section (EWS/BPL), SC, ST, OBC (Non-Creamy Layer) and Economically backward Minorities, Pwd, Kashmiri Migrants, Wards of War–Widows / Ex-servicemen (Defence) from other colleges also.

The session began with an orientation ceremony organized by the Commerce Society to welcome the Commerce freshers. They were acquainted with the college campus, briefed about the timetable, subjects, syllabus and Commerce Society, its composition. Do's and Don't's of/in college and the extra curricular options in which they can participate were explained to them.

Department of Commerce organized an Intra College quiz competition on 16th January, 2019. The event saw an enthusiastic participation by students from all the streams. The quiz was an amalgamation of general business awareness & fun and proved to be a successful event. The Department organized a seminar on “Effective communication skills and how to crack interviews” conducted by Dr. Shubhangini Bhalla of IBS (ICFAI Business School) on 23rd January, 2019. The seminar saw enthusiastic participation from students and they were benefitted with this interactive session.

Commerce Department invited “Unique Shiksha” to conduct an enriching seminar on various aspects of IAS on 4th February, 2019. This informative seminar was attended by students from various streams/courses which helped in clearing their doubts related to this field and having a more clear vision about the same.

The Department of Commerce invited Mr. Keshav Kumar CFA, Director and Lead Trainer at Financial Corridor to conduct a seminar on Stock Markets on 6th February, 2019. The session was insightful and fruitful and it enhanced the theoretical knowledge of students as they were oriented with the practical application of the same. Commerce Society invited the esteemed professors from Ansal University to provide an interactive workshop on Group Discussions on 7th February, 2019. The workshop helped students in gaining a sense of leadership and team work and also, to let go their inhibitions and become more confident in presenting themselves.

Finally, on 8th February 2018, The Commerce Department had its much-awaited Annual Inter College Commerce Festival – ‘Comspect’. This year the event witnessed a great footfall of over 500 students participating enthusiastically in various formal as well as informal events. The event commenced with an intellectual speech by our dignitary, Professor A.K Singh, Delhi School of Economics, University of Delhi. There were six inter college formal events like Plan a Product, Brandstorming 2.0, La Comercio Paisés, Brainaholic Bandits, Stockathon. Various informative informal games such As Roll Your Way Through It, Race for the Best 2.0, Bet You know It, Blind Pictionary etc were also organized to add fun to the event. The extravaganza event also witnessed delicious food stalls, accessory stall and stationary stall, which attracted the large no. of participants. The annual department fest, COMSPECT'19 proved to be a great success.

To conclude, the events organized by Commerce society students were beyond expectations and the entire year was full of opportunities and initiatives which helped to lift the spirits of young talents and inspire them to be future leaders.
