

Dear Participants,

We are happy to announce that the Department of Sociology, Lakshmibai College, University of Delhi is going to organise a National Seminar on Elderly Care: Viksit Bharat @2047 which is sponsored by the National Institute of Social Defence (NISD), Ministry of Social Justice.

By 2050, one in five Indians will be a senior citizen—bringing both opportunities and challenges in healthcare, financial security, and dignity in aging. This seminar brings together policymakers, social workers, students, and senior citizens to share ideas and build a roadmap for the future. Your expertise and passion will be invaluable in shaping this conversation.

We look forward to your valuable participation. Please register here:
