

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

Our Chief Guest, Prof. Kiran Walia, Hon'ble Minister of Social Welfare, Women and Child Development and Languages; Guests of Honour, Prof. J.M. Khurana, Dean ,Student's Welfare and Ms. Anuradha Dutt, eminent lawyer, High Court and Supreme Court of India; distinguished guests, colleagues and young friends.

I extend a warm welcome to all gathered here on the occasion of our College Annual Day. We are honored to have with us Prof. Kiran Walia, Hon'ble Minister of Social Welfare, Women and Child Development and Languages. Prof. Kiran Walia was born in a prominent family of freedom fighters. Her father was closely associated with veteran Sh. Bhagat Singh and worked tirelessly for the Nation. Her family members, in the patronage of the Congress, have served the public and country. She started her professional career as a teacher in Lakshmi Bai College of Delhi. During this period she was the first woman who won with record votes in Delhi University Teacher's Association (DUTA) and represented the Teachers' Association in the Executive and Academic Councils for several years. Thereafter she headed the Teachers' cell at the All India Congress Committee for three years and was Chairperson of South Delhi District Development Committee. She was Chairperson of Delhi commission for women. She is now minister of Social Welfare, Women and Child Development and Languages.

She represented India at an International Conference in the USSR. As a member delegate, she visited Malaysia and Melbourne for the Commonwealth Games. She also visited Cambodia and Thailand for the eradication of AIDS. She has presented several Research Papers at many Universities in the country and abroad.

We also have with us Prof. J.M. Khurana Chairperson Sports Council and Dean Students' Welfare. Prof. Khurana has published over 80 papers in different journals. He has supervised more than 20 Ph.d students and an equal number of M.Phil students. He was International Fellow at the Stanford Research Institute from January 1995 to October 1997. He was research Associate, Department of Chemistry, Lehigh University, USA from July 1985 - November 1985. He was Research Associate Department of Chemistry, Marquette University, Milwaukee, USA. He was also Post Doctoral Fellow Department of Chemistry University of Alberta, Edmonton, Canada.

Ms. Anuradha Dutt's name deserves mention. She Graduated in Law in 1981 from Delhi University. In 1982 she did in L.L.M from the University of Columbia. She is a renowned cricketer and was the Hony. Secretary of the Delhi Women's Cricket Association from 1991 - 2005. She received the Outstanding Sportsperson Award for the year 1980-1981 from the Law Faculty, Delhi University. She has successfully represented a leading global telecommunication company in a $2.1 billion tax litigation Supreme Court of India case that resulted in a landmark judgment in the field of tax treatment of International Mergers., and Acquisitions. Ms. Dutt has been involved with several complex corporate, commercial civil and tax litigation cases. Her area of expertise includes corporate restructuring, infrastructure financing, telecommunications, investments and direct and indirect taxes. She functions on the panels of the Public Sector and Union of India.

We are thankful and highly indebted to Ms. Dutt for her help and support during the very troubled period of teachers' struggle for honour and dignity. We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to her for helping us safeguard the honour and integrity of our college.

Lakshmbai College has made Delhi University proud. We aim at the holistic development of our students through awareness generation, better teaching-learning facilities, vocational courses and co-curricular activities. The aim is to make our young women students financially independent and completely self-reliant. This is the goal we will keep striving for endlessly.

College Activities

Student's Union

The Students Union kept up its enthusiasm through the course of the year. The new entrants were introduced to faculty members and were informed about the various literary and cultural societies of the college at the Orientation Programme held on 20 July 2011. Independence Day, celebrated on 12th August, was marked by the rendition of patriotic songs that did justice to the patriotic fervor of the occasion.

Elections for Delhi University Student's Union and the College Union were held on 9 September 2011. The newly appointed team took oath on 22 September. The Miss DT contest, held on 23 August sustained its popularity and was well responded to. The Miss LBC contest, inaugurated by Prof. Deepti Bhalla, a dancer of international fame, was organised on 19 August 2011. The contest was a huge success and Prerna Bakshi, of B.A. English(H) I year, won the coveted title of Miss LBC.

Republic Day was celebrated on 25 January 2012. Several students and staff members expressed nationalist zeal by dressing up in the tri-colours.

The Annual Inter College Cultural Festival Vividha was held on 9-10 February 2012. The Festival showcased diverse events and performances. Professor Shirin Rathore, former Dean of Colleges, University of Delhi, inaugurated the festival and Ms. Suchitra Gupta, Deputy Dean Cultural Council, University of Delhi, were the guests of honour. Debate, Poetry, Extempore, Creative Writing and Quiz inter-college competitions were held. The ingenuity and skills of participants in mehendi, rangoli candle making and flower arrangement were judged through back stage contest. Newly introduced nail art and tattoo making competitions also received active participation from different colleges. The Quick Snack contest saw an array of innovative mouth watering dishes served aesthetically by our young chefs. At the Fashion Show, our budding designers impressed everyone with their creative apparels.

Winner of Indian Idol – 2 Sandeep Acharya – captivated the audience with his melodious voice and scintillating performance along with Vishal Srivastava of the X- Factor Fame. Young artists from Aura Film and theater Staged a short play entitled Happy Birthday which motivated the students to remain joyful through their day to day problems.

Fine Arts Society

The Society organized a Mehndi Competition on 28 January 2012; a Greeting Card Making Competition on 31 January 2012; and a Pot Decoration Competition on 14 February 2012.

The society on 8 February 2012, organized a Workshop-cum-Exhibition on a range of decorative arts such as Jhorokha Art, Tribal Art, Tile Painting Modern Art, Coffee Making, Photo Frame Making and Flower Making. The Exhibition sparked off a keen interest in the students and many of them have now enrolled in a short course in these decorative arts. These Fine Arts classes will take place in the college premises from February-March 2012.

Women's Development Centre

The women's Development Centre held a slogan/poster/collage making competition on 8 February 2012. The committee also screened a movie called Bol on 1 February 2012. The aim was to sensitize students to the issues of how women are at a distinct social disadvantage in a patriarchal society. WDC in collaboration with the National Human Rights Commission, is also organizing a National Seminar on state, Development and Gender: A Human Rights Perspective on 28-29 February 2012.

Sanrakshan: The Society For Environmental Awareness

This year the Society for Environmental Awareness organized a Poster competition on Future of Earth in which students from different streams participated in large numbers to discuss the future of the earth. Students have shown great interest in bringing products made out of waste to the waste to wealth competition. They have shown their utmost capability and skill in creating lamp envelopes, bangle boxes, letter pads, cushion bags, wall-hangings, photo frames, flower vases etc. Student participation in the waste management project in college- the context of the sale of compost made of garden waste was particularly noteworthy.

The Society also organized a Plantation Drive in which students were given pots and compost and were asked to bring a plant of medicinal value and nurture it for two weeks and were awarded certificates and prizes for the same.

An Environmental Awareness Exhibition was organized to segregate waste, save energy and make mother earth a greener and cleaner place to live in.

Music And dance Society

The Music and dance Society, in the year 2011 – 2012, conducted an Inter Class competition in light music and dance on 14 September 2011. More than thirty students participated in the solo singing competition. Sakshi Roy of B.A (Prog.) III Year won the first prize. Several other students went on to perform very well. Ezra Dogra of B.A (Prog.) III year won the I prize in the solo dance competition.

Apart from this, Ezra Dogra won the II prize in the Inter-college Classical Dance competition organized by Deen Dyal Updhyay College in collaboration with the cultural council, Delhi University. Our students also participated in the Gandhi Jayanthi programme organized by the Gandhi Study Circle at Delhi University on 2 October 2011 at Gandhi Bhawan. Their performance was much appreciated by Dr. Suneja, Pro Vice Chancellor, Delhi University.

The students of the Music and Dance Society also participated in the events of Saraswati Vandana and a Musical orchestra called Rhythms of India at the Annual Day Programme.

Punjabi Literary And Cultural Society

The Punjabi Literary and Cultural Society organized an inter-class Poster Competition on 22 September 2011. On 16 September 2011, two students participated and won the IInd prize in an inter-college Quiz Competition organized by Dayal Singh College. Our students also participated in a Declamation Competition on Guru Teg Bahadur Hind Di Chader organized by Mata Sundri College on 13 October 2011.

Our students also presented a Shabad on Gandhi Jayanti as well as on Martyrs' Day. The Society will organize a Gidda on the College Annual Day on 24 February 2012.

Sanskrit Literary Society

The Sanskrit Literary Society students participated in various inter-college competitions. Our students-Sheetal kashyap- won the III Prize at the inter College recitation competition held at I.P College while Anshu got the consolation prize in Veda Mantrochharn.

An inter-college Ekal Sloke competition was organized by Delhi Sanskrit Academy in our college. Our students performed well at it. Many inter-class competitions were also organized in which the students participated enthusiastically. The society proposes to organize inter-college Vedic Mantroccharan and recitation competitions on 1 March 2012.

Hindi Debate And Dramatics Society

The Hindi and Dramatics Society organized four key competitions in the 2011-12 session. On 27 September 2011, a debate on Democracy is the Best was organized. The next event of note was a poetry writing competition. Students presented original and impressive poems on contemporary issues. This was followed by an essay-writing competition on topics like Women's Empowerment, Lokpal Bill, Traffic congestion in Delhi, Corruption, Relevance of Gandhiji, State an Direction of Hindi Literature.

A story-writing competition was organized to encourage students to develop creative writing skills on issues of social interest ranging from Dowry to Female Foeticide.

The Society has, since last year, also been engaged in organizing the Vishnu-Prabhakar Memorial Debate competition. This success of last year was repeated this year at the inter-college level. As part of the same event, an extempore competition was also organized for visually challenged students on 8 February 2012.

Women's Association, Delhi University, organized a street play on cancer. The LB team participated in it. The same play was later staged in LB and Non Collegiate on Sunday.

English Literary And Debating Society Cum Film Club

English Literary and Debating Society cum Film club of College initiated its calendar for the current academic session with an event on Irom Sharmila, the Manipur poet-entitled Tales from the Margins. The event began with the screening of a documentary film – entitled My Body My Weapon – made by the filmmaker Kavita Joshi. This was followed by an interactive performance by the theatre group – Kankhowa – an initiative headed by Samudra Kajal Saikia. Delhi – based civil rights activist, Matab Alam, along with other members of an NGO, discussed the need to repeal the AFSPA (Armed Forces Special Powers Act) in order to restore justice and dignity to people in the disturbed states where this brutal law is being implemented. A well publicized event, it drew a huge response and many of our students felt enthused to enlist for the Support Sharmila Signature Campaign.

The Society held an inter class Extempore competition on an array of topics ranging from the worship of cricket, to the merits/demerits of the semester system and the Facebook phenomenon.

The society, in collaboration with the Department of English, arranged a screening of Peter Brooks' Mahabharata. The Society also organized, what has now become its annual feature, a creative writing competition. Prize winning entries have been printed in the College Magazine.

Committee on Affirmative Action

The Committee on Affirmative Action, under the able guidance of Dr. M.P. Yadav has done its best to bolster the interests and welfare of category students. Nine differently abled, visually impaired students have been granted a scholarship by the All India Confederation of the Blind, Delhi.

Thirty physically challenged have been provided with Braille books, Recorded Audio Cassettes and CDs of E-Texts.

It has also been recommended that the college directory and magazine be made available in Braille for visually impaired teachers and students.

Building Committee

Lakshmibai College has relentlessly been striving to upgrade the infrastructure and to meet the demands of a modern system of education. The college has recently been refurbished with state-of-art technology.

The Food Technology Laboratory and Sports Complex (including the gym area) have almost been completely renovated. The toilets in the library have also been renovated.

External Lighting and Solar Lighting systems have been installed in the college, a glimpse of which can be seen during night.

The Administrative Department, Accounts Department, Alumni Room, Union Room and staff room are fully air conditioned.

Fire estingishers and fire fighting equipments have been installed in college.

A massive seepage was witnessed due to the incessant rainfall last year which affected major areas of the college. The first phase of roof renewal treatment has successfully been completed to combat the problem.

The front garden pocket A, near the nursery, has been redeveloped with brick work, green grass and plants.

Some-projects – like the renovation of the front gates and the providing of CCTV cameras – are in process.

Thus, it is with satisfaction, we conclude, that the developmental curve-on the growth graph of our college – is on the rise and we hope to build and strengthen our position year after year.

Gandhi Study Circle

The Gandhi Study circle organized a lecture on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti on 28 September 2011. Prof. Ashum Gupta, Director, Gandhi Bhavan of Delhi University, delivered a lecture on The Relevance of Gandhian Views in Modern Times.

The study circle, on the occasion of Martyrs' Day also organized a talk by Prof. R.P. Sinha, JNU on Gandhi and Kala Gandhi's favourite bhajans were sung by the students. A group discussion on the key tenets of Gandhian philosophy was also conducted.

Medical Committee

NESDALF

NESDALF (Society of Students from North eastern States, Darjeeling, Ladakh and Foreign Countries) is a common platform for students from the above mentioned regions. Previously known as the North-east Society, it was in 2012, re-christened as NESDALF since it is comprised of students from various regions besides north east India. The society is primarily concerned with the welfare of its student members and aims at representing the diverse cultures of the regions its members hail from.

Proctorial Board

The Proctorial Board aims at maintaining discipline and order in college. A number of activities were organized by the Board. I-card checking at the entrance gate, to take an example, is a routine security measure. Other key concerns include the Anti-ragging campaign, disallowing the use of cell phones in classrooms and corridors, disallowing student cars in the parking, maintaining a silence zone and maintaining a tobacco free zone.

A first-time ever annual function of the Board was organized in college. DCP Meenu Chaudhary was invited to grace the occasion. She spoke about the special service provided for women by the Delhi Police and urged students to avail of these services.

Certificate and cash prizes were distributed to active participants of the Board.

Garden Committee

The front lawn pocket A, near the nursery, will shortly be developed, by a landscape specialist, with fine brick work to perfection. The extensive planting of seed saplings and lay – out of grass beds has been achieved through the tireless work of grass beds has been achieved through the tireless work of Ms. Nirmal Kanta from the Department of Political Science.

Maintenance And Cleanliness Committee

The Maintenance and Cleanliness Committee, with the assistance of Sulabh Karamcharis, have left no stone unturned to (i) ensure the regular supply of water, particularly in the washrooms; (ii) provide dustbins all over college; (iii) remove leakages in taps.

Rooms are kept clean and tidy. Library bookshelves are dusted and kept clean on a regular basis.

The History Society

The society screened a Documentary film on Soviet History on 16 September 2011. The screening was well-attended by students.

A talk by prof. Arvind Sinha (CHS, JNU) on The Rise of Absolutism in Early Modern Europe was held on 8 November 2011. It received spectacular response.

The History society is also planning to organize a one-day academic trip to various historical monuments of Delhi in the month of February/March 2012.

BBE Department

The BBE Society of Lakshmibai College, is actively working on organizing seminars, workshops, talks, student presentations and conducting interactive sessions with teachers as well as the corporate bodies of different companies.

This year the society organized a talk on India: Development Perspective on 28 September 2011 by Dr. H.S. Gill (Chief Economist, Human Settlement Management Institute Research and Training Wing of HUDCO, New Delhi). He spoke on the current economic scenario of our country within the context of the larger global economic crisis situation.

The society also organized a workshop on career counseling on 14 October 2011. The Resource Person was Dr. Ajay Kumar Singh from the Department of Commerce, Delhi school of Economics. Participant response was overwhelming.

The BBE Society also organized the annual inter-college festival-impetus-on 8 February 2012. The Chief Guest was Prof. Suresh Agarwal from the Department of Business Economics, South Campus. Coordinators of all the BBE colleges were invited along with a team of students. The five chief attractions of the festival-Business Plan, Just a Minute, Quiz, Ad-mad and T-shirt Painting – were a big hit with teachers as well as students.

STATUS OF AUTOMATION OF ACCOUNTING PROCEDURES AND STUDENT INFORMATION SYSTEM

The process of automation in these spheres is in full swing. Paper work has been completely replaced by computerized Information Reports. Programmed Software is ORACLE 10G/11G/Windows 2000 Server edition based. Pay/Pension slips/ Deduction statement, Annual Income statements, Tax Calculation Sheets, Form 16, cheque Printing (all categories), bank Lists for salary / Pension disbursement, Cashier's Cash Book / Imprest Register, Balance Sheet Schedules and Miscellaneous Reports are Automatically generated with initial Data Entry on Programmed Software. The Daily Voucher Entry System has been in operation for the past two years.

Student Register and mark sheet have also been generated through software based programmes. All categories of certificates (character, Migration, Bonafide and College Leaving Certificate) issued to students will be generated through programmed software w.e.f. this year student attendance record and Reports will be generated through programmed software w.e.f. 2011-12.

Another added feature this year is the Computerization of Leave-related Data for both the Teaching as well as Non-Teaching Staff.

Wi-fi Connectivity has been provided by Delhi University in the Accounts and Administration wings w.e.f. this year.

The institution has purchased original ORACLE Software (5 user) with registered compatible windows 2000 server Version. ORACLE based software programming, provided by Bright InfoTech, has wide adaptability and is capable of yielding multiple formats of required output. We hope to do better in the years to come.

LIBRARY AUTOMATION

The college library has been fully automated using Libsys Software. Approximately 83,000 books have been put into the Automation Process. The library has undergone renovation and now has its own computer unit catering to the students and teaching faculty of the college. There are two computer units one each on the ground and the first floor. Library tickets and Library – I cards have been computer generated for staff and students. OPAC (on line public access catalogue Facility) has also been provided for users since November 2008. The Library has also purchased a scanner Gun for greater efficiency on the issue/Return Counter. Wi-Fi Connectivity has also been provided.

Vote of Thanks

We, all Lakshmibai College, would like to thank the University of Delhi; Government of NCT, Delhi; and the UGC for their assistance. We would also like to thank the College Governing Body, our students and the academic and administrative staff for their whole-hearted support. It would not have been possible to ensure organizational functionality without the help and support of our teaching and non-teaching staff and our students.

We would also like to thank our distinguished guests: Prof. Kiran Walia, Prof. J.M. Khurana and

Ms. Anuradha Dutt for sparing the time to be with us today morning.
