INVITATION FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

Lakshmibai College is pleased to invite Expressions of Interest (EOI) from individuals / groups / organizations / NGOs for a collaborative initiative with the Department of Home Science centered on the Parampara Food Van. This initiative aims to promote health, nutrition and entrepreneurship within the college and the broader community with the processing of healthy, traditional, natural, nutritious, organic, satvic and immunity boosting food items. The key objectives of this initiative are as follows:

1. Operation of Parampara Food Van: To run the "Parampara" food service unit through a Food Van located near the college gate, providing B.Sc. Hons. Home Science and B.A. (Food Technology) program students with internships and hands-on experience in managing a business venture.
2. Promotion of Healthy Food Habits and Nutritional Awareness: To encourage healthy eating habits and nutritional awareness among students, staff and the community.
3. Showcase of Innovative Talent: To enable students to learn and demonstrate their innovative skills, gaining real-life experience and recognition from society.
4. Promotion of National Integration: To promote national integration by celebrating pan-India cuisine and fostering an appreciation for India's rich culinary heritage.

Some tentative food items are millet khichdi, rice fara, ragi idli, tulsiginger tea, lemon tea, daal baati, litti choka, thepla etc.

Parampara Food Van is a separate venture from the existing fully functional college canteen. The interested individuals and groups are invited to submit their Expression of Interest at the undersigned office within 10 days of the issuance of this notice. For further details and to discuss the terms and conditions of usage, please contact Dr. Roshan Lal, Assistant Professor (Dept. of Home Science) Ph. No. 9466771355, email- roshanlal@lb.du.ac.in
